

Dan Cieniewicz works as the marketing specialist and is a service advisor for Hyperion Financial. Working with clients to realize their goals and helping to create and distribute content is something Dan enjoys doing. By educating families, he helps provide answers in plain English that many families have. Dan was born & raised in Berks County, but has since moved to Lancaster County. He attended Albright College, majoring in Economics and Political Science and played on the football team.

Dan has obtained the CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ designation. Dan was previously the head girls basketball coach at Warwick High School in Lititz, PA. He enjoys going for walks around his neighborhood with his wife, Carly, and children Stella & Oliver.
